RE: Traveling show closed by City of London Health Officials

News broke tonight as the city's Health Department closed a traveling show on it's third night after they received several complaints that the show had created health conditions amongst the audience. Mister Albert Meyers was taken into custody by the local police and while the actual charges were not announced, it was speculated that this was a direct result of his presentation(s) at a downtown theater. Further insight was gauged by this reporter's opportunity to interview several of the theater goes on this third and final night.

"It was like my mind was spinning and I started to hear strange voices and saw faces appear to be popping out of the picture…"

and some form of mental uneasiness or nervousness.
He further offered that they would need to further research this to determine if Mister Meyers had done this deliberate or if there were some nature factor(s) at play.
As of this report, Mister Meyers is been held for observation and only time will tell.
